

Course Fees and Booking Requirements - as of August 2009

Course Fees

The short course cost is normally $100 per person or $150 for a married couple. Caleb can also work off a flat rate of $2000 which is based on 20 registrations (our usual minimum requirement). Every rego over 20 goes toward your organization to do with as you see fit. We suggest that this can be used to subsidise the registrations for everyone enrolled – for example if there are 30 people attending then each person will only be required to pay about $66 (a 33% discount). IE $2000 divided by 30 = $66.65 per person.

Please indicate if you would like this option – this option is provided as an incentive for you to aim for the maximum (30) not the minimum.

The booking requirement to host a course is as follows:

A $400 non-refundable deposit paid no later than 4 weeks prior to the commencement of the course applies to groups in Victoria and a $600 amount for other states of Australia. The course booking fee is a down payment for course registrations – not an additional charge to run the course.

This fee is non-refundable as Caleb expends considerable time and money setting up our commitment to the training and includes purchasing and development of training materials, arranging travel details and costs and booking trainers to help run the courses.

Please contact us at caleb@caleb.org.au or phone 1300 767 444 for any questions. We are only too happy to help if we can.
